

701—26.12(422) Carpentry. Persons engaged in the business of repairing, as a carpenter, as the trade is known in the usual course of business, are rendering, furnishing or performing a service, the gross receipts from which are subject to tax. Such structures may be either real or personal property.